Dear Audience Members and Friends

A MESSAGE FROM OUR EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR AND BOARD CHAIR

Welcome to today's performance! We are thrilled that you have joined us to celebrate the hard work, dedication, and achievement of the students on stage and thank you for your support. You will see on the dancers' faces the true impact of NDI New Mexico's program: children are working hard, doing their best, never giving up, and becoming healthier.

We are proud to let you know that this year, NDI New Mexico will serve nearly 9,000 children across the state with programs that inspire them to be their best by building their self-confidence and character, supporting their academic success, and improving their health and quality of life. Since 1994, we have provided programs to over 70,000 youth in New Mexico.

We believe that all children deserve the opportunity to experience excellence, success, and the chance to achieve their dreams.

In the future, we hope to eventually serve even more children and schools from our wait list with high quality in-school and out-of-school programs.

With the completion of The Hiland Theater renovation in Albuquerque and the training of new teachers, in the past few years we have increased both the depth and breadth of our programming in the state. In addition, we now have new evaluation results which show the profound impact of the NDI New Mexico program on children's attitudes and on their test scores.

A special thank you goes to all the volunteers and donors who help make NDI New Mexico's statewide program possible. Your commitment has helped transform children's lives. Once again, we are happy that you have joined us today and hope that you enjoy the show!

THE WALLACE FOUNDATION

NDI New Mexico was featured by the Wallace Foundation in an exclusive list of eight exemplary and highly effective after-school arts programs in the United States.

THE HILAND THEATER

Every day, the halls of The Hiland Theater are filled with the sound of happy, excited children. We are thrilled to have finished the renovations in order to provide high quality, engaging dance classes to Albuquerque youth.

EVALUATION RESULTS

Here at NDI New Mexico we are dedicated to making a positive impact on the lives of children. This year our evaluation results show, once again, that the NDI New Mexico recipe for success works!

ORIGINAL SCRIPT

Rollin' on the Rio is the first original show produced by our Albuquerque outreach staff! Rollin' on the Rio features over 1,000 children in their End-of-Year performances.

OUR FIRST BALANCHINE BALLET

The George Balanchine Trust granted access to NDI New Mexico to produce one of the beautiful ballets choreographed by George Balanchine. This is an incredible honor as the Trust only allows highly skilled and driven arts organizations to stage their ballets.

NEW OUTREACH TEACHERS

As our list of schools, the number of children we impact, and the number of communities we serve grows, it has become increasingly important to teach our unique approach to a growing number of young dance teachers.

Our Recipe for Success

.....
Let's cook up some joyful learning with powerfully healthy ingredients that are guaranteed to increase self-confidence, tenacity, discipline, and an understanding of excellence!

Gather the Following Essential Ingredients:

- Dedicated teaching artists
- Proven teaching techniques
- A depth and breadth of community programming available to children of all ages
- Culminating performances for audiences
- A culture of high standards and excellence
- Measurable results
- Committed community partners and generous donors
- 20-year history of stability and fiscal responsibility
- Engaged board of directors

Stir until well blended, serve in urban and rural communities all over New Mexico.

How does a youth development program prepare children to become hard working and successful students and citizens? What healthy ingredients must come together to inspire the passion and persistence needed to reach life's important goals? At NDI New Mexico, children learn to master the "CORE FOUR" – work hard, do your best, never give up, and be healthy – our guiding principals for EXCELLENCE that motivate beyond the dance class and into the future. By providing the key ingredients that create life-changing experiences for our dancers, NDI New Mexico's recipe for success proves that when you hold the bar very high, children will strive to reach it.

Dynamic teaching artists make the difference. NDI New Mexico trains artists with professional and performance backgrounds to deliver our dynamic, high-energy programs. Rigorous preparation for program instructors begins with participation in our two week intensive Teaching Excellence® workshop, followed by a one- to two-year apprenticeship and yearly artistic staff enrichment workshops to learn new skills and to share best practices. By modeling the philosophy that good enough is not good enough, they show children what it means to strive for excellence by always doing your personal best. Couple this with a deep love and respect for children, a passion for teaching, humor and energy, and you have the core ingredients required to ensure high-quality programs for the children we serve. Talented, well-trained instructors and pianists who care deeply about the impact they have on the children they teach define what we do.

NDI New Mexico knows that every child can succeed when given the proper motivation. The foundation of our philosophy is to set high expectations, create a safe learning environment where mistakes are part of the learning process, use fun and engaging teaching techniques to master challenges, and give enthusiastic praise for personal and group triumphs.

NDI New Mexico's Recipe for Success

Our programs are goal-oriented and teach children that hard work can be fun and exciting. By setting strong and achievable goals, and striving for excellence during each step of the process, children learn what it means to have a solid work ethic. The philosophy of holding high expectations and never underestimating children is another key ingredient in our recipe for success.

Culminating performances are a part of every NDI New Mexico program and give children the opportunity to gain valuable positive attention from their families, peers, and the community at large. This year alone, our 9,000 dancers will perform for over 80,000 audience members throughout the state. Enthusiastic audiences are a mix of parents and families of the dancers, school children, teachers, principals, elected officials, business leaders, program supporters, and members of the community. Children tell us that these performances make them feel proud of their accomplishments and create lasting memories of being a star! They learn to overcome their stage fright and shine as they get their moment in the spotlight. We know that performing for an audience is a motivating factor for learning focus, tenacity and teamwork.

The Dance Barns in Santa Fe and The Hiland in Albuquerque are NDI New Mexico's dedicated and inspiring learning centers where children from the community can come together to experience the magic of the arts. Our facilities are physically and emotionally safe environments and gathering places for families. Each day they are filled with children of all ages and their mentors making art together as they explore what it means to be excellent. By providing high-quality staff and programs that are either free or offered on a sliding fee basis, we make the arts accessible and fill a gap for children who do not have many options for youth development outside of sports. Over 1,000 children come to the Dance Barns and over 700 to The Hiland each week – children who are being physically active, emotionally nurtured, and artistically engaged.

Independent scientific evaluations of NDI New Mexico's measurable impact on students in our programs are conducted on a yearly basis. Children say that participating in classes and performances makes them feel proud, confident and energetic. Classroom teachers report that their students are learning about teamwork, goal setting and positive risk taking. Principals love that they can bring the arts into their schools in a way that joyfully improves focus and concentration. Parents say that their children are learning responsibility and how to be healthy and fit. All of these values and behaviors can help students do better in school and effectively spill over into all aspects of their lives, preparing them for success as adult members of their communities.

It takes a village to raise a child! Through the dedication of the NDI New Mexico Board of Directors, our incredible volunteers, community partners – Department of Health, public schools, City of Albuquerque, City of Santa Fe, Bernalillo County, corporate sponsors – and generous donors, we are able to serve children in 34 communities all over the state of New Mexico.

NDI New Mexico's recipe for success is the time-tested bringing together of our award-winning teaching methodology and a belief in the power of the arts to engage and motivate children towards EXCELLENCE. We are serving up generous portions of life-changing joyful experiences for dancers and audiences alike.

NDI New Mexico Statewide Programs

NDI New Mexico brings award-winning arts and healthy lifestyle programs to underserved children in urban, rural and Native American communities throughout New Mexico. NDI New Mexico's statewide outreach is offered in Santa Fe, Albuquerque, Northern New Mexico and in Residency programs throughout the state.

Spotlight on the Socorro Residency

Ronna Kalish is Director of the New Mexico Tech Performing Arts Series in Socorro, New Mexico. Just over 20 years ago, she met Catherine Oppenheimer, NDI New Mexico's Founding Artistic Director. After seeing Catherine teach, Ronna immediately started working to bring the NDI New Mexico program to Socorro, because, as she says, "I was eager to establish some strong performing arts outreach programs for youth in Socorro. What I love about NDI New Mexico is that it gives amazing hands-on experience in dance, theatre, music and live performance to students who in most cases would not get that opportunity."

NDI New Mexico has been conducting residency programs in Socorro for 18 years. Every fall a team of instructors and musicians spend three weeks teaching 275 children from 5 local schools. The children's hard work culminates in performances on the Macey Center stage. Ronna says the final performances "bring the community together, and are a cultural education for students and audiences alike."

"It is key for our students to learn the Core Four values of NDI New Mexico: work hard, do your best, never give up, and be healthy. The NDI program is a highlight of the fourth-grade year here in Socorro!"

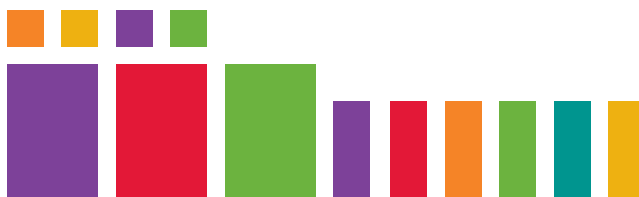

- Ingrid Halverson, 4th-Grade Teacher

The Hiland and The Dance Barns

Two locations, one in Albuquerque and one in Santa Fe, help us to achieve our goal of teaching children excellence.

The Dance Barns in Santa Fe and The Hiland in Albuquerque were built to meet the needs of the children in our outreach programs as well as from the community. Each week 1,700 children between the ages of 3 and 18 years old come to these two vibrant facilities for high quality after-school classes with a focus on excellence.

The Dance Barns and The Hiland have become assets to their communities. They provide a nurturing and engaging “third place” for children and their families – a place separate from home or school where children and teens can come together to explore creative movement, ballet, modern, tap, jazz, voice, and theater. Showcases onstage give each child an opportunity to show what they have learned and gain exciting and valuable performance experience.

Classes at The Dance Barns and The Hiland are open to all children in the community and are offered on a sliding fee scale. For additional information about after-school, weekend, and summer programs, as well as class schedules and upcoming performance dates, please visit our website: www.ndi-nm.org.

Spotlight on Student Hugo Pizano

Hugo Pizano's first dance class was with Leslie Stamper, North Outreach Artistic Director, in the gym at James H. Rodriguez Elementary in Española. Hugo's energy and effort in class earned him an invitation to join the North SWAT Team, and then in middle school, a spot on the Celebration Team. He spent five years on the North Advanced Teams, which he says were like a "second family" to him.

"Miss Stamper really opened my eyes and showed me the love of dance that I have. She taught me to always give everything 100%, to never stop trying even when things seem impossible. She has a very special connection with each and every one of her students."

Once this love of dance was awakened in Hugo, he pursued his passion through opportunities at The Dance Barns in Santa Fe. With his family and friends dedicated to making the commute, he took advantage of after-school classes and summer programs. In eighth-grade he auditioned for and was accepted to the Dance Department of New Mexico School for the Arts (NMSA), and also joined NDI New Mexico's pre-professional performance group, Company XCel. Hugo commutes from Española daily. An average school day for him includes 5 hours of academic courses, three hours of NMSA dance classes, and another two hours of Dance Barns classes and XCel rehearsal (plus homework!).

"Always give everything 100%, never stop trying even when things seem impossible."

Powerful Partnerships

We couldn't do it alone! Building and strengthening relationships with individuals, businesses, foundations and government agencies help keep our programs thriving in communities throughout the state. Strong community support and powerful partnerships are the cornerstones of NDI New Mexico. In addition to teachers, principals, schools and school districts, there are many who make it possible for us to bring our staff to cities and towns all over New Mexico.

Thank you to the State of New Mexico!

Generous support from the NM Department of Health helps us to provide more than 67,000 instructional hours to almost 2,000 children and 145 classroom teachers around the state. The NM Arts Commission supports our program in the Pojoaque and Española Valleys. Speaker of the House Don Tripp introduced a Memorial proclaiming February 24, 2015 as "NDI NEW MEXICO DAY."

Our partnership with Bernalillo County ensures that The Hiland Theater is an anchor in neighborhood redevelopment as well as a safe, inviting place for children and their families to explore the performing arts.

The City of Albuquerque's Family and Community Services Department continues to help us reach 680 students enrolled in after-school programs at all city community centers, introducing many of them to dance for the first time.

We are grateful for the City of Santa Fe's support of our programs and The Dance Barns.

Launching a new partnership in Albuquerque, we are proud to announce the MoGro Food Club at The Hiland Theater! MoGro's efforts to support sustainable local food systems and eliminate barriers to affordable healthy food are in perfect alignment with NDI New Mexico's HIP to Be Fit® programs. Participants receive nutrition facts, recipes, and information on the benefits of fitness.

NDI NEW MEXICO'S CULTURE OF ASSESSMENT AND EVALUATION ENSURES THAT PROGRAMS AND INSTRUCTORS HAVE A POSITIVE IMPACT ON CHILDREN.

After nine years of independent, scientific evaluation results, NDI New Mexico has a strong body of data documenting the positive effects of its programming. A recent analysis of 41,122 NDI New Mexico and non-participating students' Grade Point Average (GPA) and New Mexico Standards Based Assessment (SBA) tests showed even more impressive results.

In three different analyses, NDI New Mexico students showed higher GPA and SBA test score results than their peers. In some cohorts, NDI New Mexico students, on average, had a better GPA by a full point than the other students in the district. Overall, NDI New Mexico students' GPA was 30-42% higher than their peers. On the New Mexico SBA test, NDI New Mexico outperformed their peers in Math, Reading, Writing and Science by up to 17%.

Spotlight on Alumna Deyla Curtis

Deyla Curtis has her Master's in International Development from the London School of Economics, and her Bachelor's in Political Science, International Relations, and French from Whittier College. She has interned with the United Nations High Commissioner for Refugees and has been a student research consultant for the International Committee of the Red Cross.

Deyla currently lives in Washington, D.C. working for Namati, an international development/human rights non-governmental organization that empowers people in developing nations through grassroots legal advocacy. What do these accomplishments have to do with NDI New Mexico? A lot, according to Deyla and her parents.

Deyla's first involvement with NDI New Mexico was as a third grader at Alvord Elementary School in Santa Fe. She participated in Santa Fe Advanced Teams (SWAT, Celebration, Company XCel) for a total of eight years.

When asked how NDI New Mexico contributed to her personal growth, Deyla is effusive in her compliments of her teachers and all that they gave her, which she carries with her today: Allegra Lillard for "empowering me to express myself creatively;" Robyn Avalon for "developing my logical and analytical mind through the patterns rhythms of tap dancing;" Catherine Oppenheimer for "teaching me to invest my time in the things that make me feel passionate."

"NDI New Mexico helped me develop confidence, leadership skills, a cooperative attitude, discipline, an honoring of commitments, and real relationships that last a lifetime."

Spotlight on Student Sheeleh Benally

If you're looking for Sheeleh Benally, just follow the sounds of tapping feet! On a Saturday, you'll find her at The Hiland Theater in Albuquerque: tap class in the morning, Celebration Team rehearsal in the afternoon, and in between in a studio reviewing her choreography. At home, she's tapping in the kitchen, and twirling as she cleans her room. Her mother Desbah says that NDI New Mexico has had a tremendous positive influence on Sheeleh, in particular on her confidence and poise. "When Sheeleh was little, she was so shy that even among family she wasn't comfortable making eye contact or shaking hands. If you had told me a few years ago that she would become this outgoing, energetic girl, comfortable in the spotlight in front of hundreds of people,

I never would have believed you!"

Sheeleh has participated in NDI New Mexico programs for five years, and is graduating from the Celebration team this year. She was first exposed to NDI New Mexico through the program at Montezuma Elementary School in Albuquerque, and the Albuquerque Summer Institute.

Her father, Buford comments on all the people in Sheeleh's life who have recognized what NDI has given her: from a dance instructor in another program seeing the training and focus she brings to rehearsals to a classroom teacher seeing improvements in the determination with which she approaches her school work.

"The bright smile and the twinkle in her eye after rehearsals and performances...she knows that she can do whatever she sets her mind to."

Spotlight on Joe & Toma Corda

Joe Corda is no stranger to NDI New Mexico's Core Four values: Work Hard, Do Your Best, Never Give Up and Be Healthy. As the son of an immigrant father from Sicily, he was the first in his family to attend college, earning him degrees in engineering and business, leading him into a lifetime passion of helping other immigrants realize The American Dream.

Joe married Toma in 1974, and they grew the family-owned mobile home park business from a small investment in Burbank, California to a large successful enterprise that now includes four mobile home parks in Santa Fe.

For Joe, getting ahead in America requires discipline, dedication and hard work – merits he sees in children who participate in NDI New Mexico programs.

"It's impressive to see the level of interest and involvement NDI New Mexico has created in this state – such breadth, and one can see the results."

To deepen the community impact of their business interest in Santa Fe of providing low income independent housing, the Cordas collaborated with colleagues Ana and Doug Ottersburg, who introduced them to NDI New Mexico, through "The JC Sales and Creative Homebuyer's Scholarship Fund. "This initiative provides valuable support for those students demonstrating a strong work ethic through their participation on the SWAT and Celebration Team – a focus requiring weekly rehearsals of three to four hours after-school in addition to performances.

"We have enthusiasm to support NDI New Mexico given the results we've seen in children devoting the time, effort and commitment to the program. We see exactly where our funding goes and are appreciative that there is no inflated bureaucratic overhead. It is important to recognize the family support these children receive with limited resources. To that end, we are happy to be part of that process."

"The best education is from the lessons learned when you mess up, but don't give up."

- Joe & Toma Corda

Silver Sneakers Legacy Society

Leave your dancing footsteps behind

Through your will or estate plan, you can ensure that children benefit from NDI New Mexico for years to come. In addition to building long-term financial stability and supporting programs in perpetuity, every legacy gift is a vote of confidence in the ability of children to aim high and aspire to excellence.

The Silver Sneakers Legacy Society honors the foresight and generosity of individuals who include NDI New Mexico in their wills or estate plans. Members enjoy invitations to appreciation events and other special activities, as well as recognition on lists in publications and in NDI New Mexico facilities.

Thanks to the generosity and planning of our generous donors today, generations of children will be inspired by the arts and learn to work hard, do their best, never give up, and be healthy for years (and years) to come.

“A Worthy Investment for our Future”

Krys and Phil Custer distinctly remember when they first learned about NDI New Mexico – 20 years ago! In 1995, Krys caught wind of an interesting program that Jacques D’Amboise and Catherine Oppenheimer were presenting in Silver City. “From the moment we saw it, we were hooked!” Krys and Phil have remained involved throughout NDI New Mexico’s growth, including their granddaughters appearing as Tiny Tots during Hiland End-of-Year performances.

When asked to join the Silver Sneakers Legacy Society, the Custers quickly said yes. “It was an easy decision,” Krys notes. “Seeing the incredible facility and truly dedicated staff, witnessing firsthand the development of students, and learning about the statistics and outcomes from student evaluations, Phil and I feel that NDI New Mexico is definitely a safe and worthy investment for future generations.”

THANK YOU FOR SUPPORTING THE

Dorathi Bock Pierre

SCHOLARSHIP

Little is given to dreamers, much is given to builders,
but most is given to dreamer-builders.

The Dorathi Bock Pierre Scholarship provides the opportunity for 31 students to participate in NDI New Mexico in-school programs annually and honors the memory of dancer and dance aficionado, Dorathi Bock Pierre.

Thank you to the 305 donors that have contributed to this scholarship fund in the NDI New Mexico endowment. If you would like to become number 306, please contact Aline Harris-Ellis at (505) 983-7646 x 121. Join John C. Herklotz in being a dreamer-builder.

TESUQUE RADIO COMPANY
JOHN C. HERKLOTZ

Santa Fe Gala Honors John C. Herklotz

Inspiring Excellence

An innovative force and longstanding friend to NDI New Mexico since 2003, John C. Herklotz has been committed to improving the lives and opportunities for children in New Mexico for over 25 years. An avid philanthropist, The Vatican conferred John as a Papal Knight of St. Gregory for his significant service and assistance to the Archdiocese of Santa Fe in 1998

Commitment to Children

In 1990, after a long and successful corporate career, John began pursuing a lifelong dream of devoting time and resources to charitable and worthwhile causes. John has established a legacy of helping numerous companies. He is currently Chairman of Tesuque Radio Company, a member of the board of directors of American Happenings, and a founding member of NDI New Mexico's Silver Sneakers Legacy Society.

He has generously provided scholarship funds and grants to organizations such as: Children's Museum of the Desert, USC Schools of Medicine & Music, California Institute of the Arts, Children's Hospital Los Angeles Foundation, Children's Miracle Network and Make-A-Wish Foundation.

Building Dreamers

In 2006, John took a visionary step to create an endowed scholarship fund at NDI New Mexico in memory of his beloved friend, Dorathi Bock Pierre, who had an illustrious career as a dancer, publicist and press agent. Through this endeavor, inviting others to join him, he built upon the long-term goals and dreams of NDI New Mexico and provided scholarships for students for many years to come. To date, hundreds of children have been empowered to do their personal best while attending in-school classes, after-school classes at The Dance Barns and The Hiland, and pre-professional summer programs.

John, a friend with a heart, we salute and celebrate YOU!

teaching children excellence

Spotlight on Emily Lowman

Emily grew up in Farmington, New Mexico. Her father was a theater professor and instilled a love of the performing arts in Emily from an early age. Emily received her B.F.A. in Dance at the University of New Mexico, training and performing with Bill Evans, MaryAnn Newhall, and Jennifer Predock-Linnell. After graduating, she moved to Santa Fe and saw her first NDI New Mexico performance, a residency at the Jemez Pueblo. Emily was so inspired by the energy and approach to teaching that she enrolled in NDI New Mexico's Teaching Excellence® teacher training workshop, after which she joined the artistic staff full-time.

Emily describes what inspires her about her job: "I see students working hard physically and mentally to master a dance step, and also learning to work together as a team. I see students witness their teammates' struggles, support one another with patience and perseverance, and then share in the excitement once everyone gets the step. These are important lessons that make a difference in children's lives, and lessons that will stick with them as they grow."

SPOTLIGHT ON EMILY LOWMAN

"I was hooked before the show even began. Surrounded by all of the children's family members, with an excited tension in the air... what I remember most is the crowd cheering and the shining look of pride on the dancers' faces!"

Sara A. Mills, MD, PhD

The dermatologists of Western Dermatology Consultants help you keep your skin healthy and vibrant.

Western Dermatology Consultants offers the best in medical and cosmetic skin care, as well as fat and hair removal treatments. Board-certified dermatologists Dr. Barbara Einhorn, Dr. Leslie Glass, and Dr. Sara Mills provide services to help patients maintain beautiful, healthy skin year-round.

Are you at risk?

Have you or do you live in an area of high UV exposure? As a child, did you incur any serious sunburns? Are you fair-skinned with light hair, freckles, and light eyes? Have you ever used a tanning bed? If you answered yes to any of these questions, you may be at increased risk of developing skin cancer. But remember, darker-complected individuals and those who tan easily can also develop skin cancer.

Get checked!

If you have never had a skin check, now is the perfect time. Just as it is recommended to have a yearly general physical exam, it is also recommended to have a yearly skin check.

During this exam, your dermatologist will look for any suspicious lesions, such as atypical moles and skin cancers. If any concerning lesions are found, recommendations are made regarding biopsy and/or removal. Your doctor can also review your sun-protective regimen to ensure that you are doing all that you can to protect your skin from damaging UV rays. It is important to understand that a suntan is actually sun damage to the skin and, if nothing else, it will prematurely age the skin.

So, make an appointment to see a dermatologist today. Your skin will thank you for keeping it healthy, happy, and glowing! Who better to care for your skin than a dermatologist?

This full-service medical spa offers the newest and safest techniques for beautiful skin and body rejuvenation.

Thermage® is a noninvasive method to tighten loose skin. Radiofrequency (RF) energy uniformly heats the dermis while cooling and protecting the epidermis. It causes immediate collagen contraction, followed by new collagen production that occurs over a period of time.

Clear + Brilliant® is a gentle and noninvasive anti-aging laser treatment that can improve tone and texture of skin, creating a radiant, youthful glow.

Isolaz® is a unique acne therapy that combines vacuum and painless broadband light to deep clean and purify pores from the inside out. It can provide long-lasting results—without oral or topical medications—for all skin types.

Call the Spa at 505-855-9267 to schedule a consultation.
